

DR. CHAS. TEUDNER'S ARREST

Fined $10 for Disorderly Conduct in a Police Court.

He Had Been Called as a Witness and Asserted His Dignity.

The unusual scene of a reputable physician being called as a witness and arrested and fined for disorderly conduct was enacted this morning before Justice Burke, in the Harlem Police Court.

The physician was Dr. Charles Teudner, of 238 East One Hundred and Fifth street, and he was summoned to testify to the condition of Raphael Serico, a seventeen-year-old Italian lad, of 436 East One Hundred and Twelfth street, who was run over by a grocery wagon driven by a man named John J. Serico, on the morning of April 22.

Holstein in under half the office, and it seemed as if Dr. Teudner would be called to the witness stand.

When Dr. Teudner appeared before Justice Burke, the latter inquired when the boy would be able to come to court.

"This case," remarked the Court, "has been dragging along, and it is time that it should be disposed of one way or the other."

Dr. Teudner said the boy could not leave his bed for two weeks.

"Why don't you get him up and done with it?" ejaculated the Justice.

Dr. Teudner made no reply.

Lawyer Mainwaring, Holstein, informed the Court that he had sent two physicians to Serico's home.

When Justice Burke suggested an examination of the boy on an order from the Court, Dr. Teudner broke in.

"He will not be examined unless I am present," the President of the United States could not examine him unless I was present.

Justice Burke decided to hold the case in abeyance, and Dr. Teudner stepped down.

The doctor was angry when he left the stand, and talked louder than his customary manner.

Justice Burke would not heed the warning, but the physician did not heed the warning, and he was escorted to the door by a policeman.

In the hall Dr. Teudner resumed his angry remarks. A policeman was sent to quiet him, but the doctor asserted his dignity.

Justice Burke was now beside himself and Court Officer Levy rushed out to the physician and placed him under arrest for disorderly conduct.

He was brought before Justice Burke, who fined him $10.

Dr. Teudner paid the fine under protest and left the court.

STOCK MARKET IS DULL.

Richmond Terminal Drops, Owing to the Reorganization Plan.

The Richmond Terminal reorganization plan, full details of which were given in "The Evening World" of Tuesday, was about the subject of discussion in Wall street this morning.

Some holders of the securities of the Company are evidently disappointed with the plan, and have been selling out.

This caused a drop in the common stock of 1-16 to 1-8, in the preferred of 1-16 to 1-8, and in the bonds of 1-16 to 1-8.

Managers and directors, who last night at 40, were offered as low as 30 to 40.

It is impossible to say at present whether the plan will prove a success, and the syndicate which has underwritten it in a strong way, and a large cash take up, is not likely to be successful.

The pressure of the Richmond Terminal and a break in prices in London, which latter, according to all accounts, was engineered from this side, caused a further drop in the stock.

Some holders of the securities of the Company are evidently disappointed with the plan, and have been selling out.

This caused a drop in the common stock of 1-16 to 1-8, in the preferred of 1-16 to 1-8, and in the bonds of 1-16 to 1-8.

Managers and directors, who last night at 40, were offered as low as 30 to 40.

It is impossible to say at present whether the plan will prove a success, and the syndicate which has underwritten it in a strong way, and a large cash take up, is not likely to be successful.

The pressure of the Richmond Terminal and a break in prices in London, which latter, according to all accounts, was engineered from this side, caused a further drop in the stock.

Some holders of the securities of the Company are evidently disappointed with the plan, and have been selling out.

AWFUL SCENE AT A LYNCHING.

Men Tear Their Victim with the Ferocity of Wild Beasts.

Lifeless Body Dragged Through Public Streets at a Rope's End.

CORUNNA, Mich., May 24.—William Sullivan, the farmhand who so brutally murdered his employer, Layton Leitch, and murdered, assaulted the latter's wife, paid the penalty of his crime last night. He was taken from the jail and lynched at 8 o'clock.

The mob consisted of over 800 men, who shouted themselves hoarse as the body dangled at the end of a rope.

Just before he was taken from a cell Sullivan attempted to commit suicide with a knife which he had in some manner concealed about his person.

Men fought, struggled and cursed for the privilege of helping to tug at the rope, which was thrown over a limb. With a sudden jerk Sullivan, who had been lying motionless and apparently unconscious on the ground, was raised to a sitting posture; another pull and his head and shoulders were visible above the black mass of those that surrounded the spot.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

NEWSPAPER WOMEN'S DAY.

Brings a Startling Programme at the World's Fair Congress.

Feminine Authorities on Architecture, Horse-Racing and Trouting.

CHICAGO, May 24.—Whether by accident or by design of the programme-makers to-day's session of the Congress of Tress Women of the World was the most unique in its personality of the entire series, showing, as it did, that woman's work for the press is developing in lines heretofore supposed to be within the province of men only to deal with.

In the first place, Mrs. Martha Howe Davidson, of Chicago, the presiding officer, is perhaps the only woman in the United States to edit a newspaper.

Men thought, struggled and cursed for the privilege of helping to tug at the rope, which was thrown over a limb. With a sudden jerk Sullivan, who had been lying motionless and apparently unconscious on the ground, was raised to a sitting posture; another pull and his head and shoulders were visible above the black mass of those that surrounded the spot.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

When the body was lowered to the ground, portions of the mob who had been unable to get close enough to take a hand in the actual hanging seized upon the rope and dragged the lifeless body through the mire.

Afterwards a crowd dragged the corpse about the streets and around the Court-house square.

A terrible scene followed. The body was pushed from hand to hand and several men drew their pocket-knives and lunged at the swinging body. Others began to tear the clothing, and in a few moments only the shreds of the shirt remained hanging to the shoulders.

ONE ATTACHMENT IS VACATED.

The Domestic Company Makes Good That $2,976 Note.

Now Must Await Convenience of the Astor Place Bank.

The first of the two attachments taken by the Astor Place Bank against the Domestic Sewing Machine Company was vacated this morning upon payment of the full amount by certified check to Blumenthal & Hirsch, attorneys for the bank.

The amount of the check was $2,976, which is also the amount of the note which the Company allowed to go to protect last Friday, precipitating the trouble.

The other attachment for $2,367 remains, and consequently the Company's building at 401 Broadway, east of M. G. Van Rensselaer, of New York, who has made a special study of architecture for utilization in journalistic work.

Their action, absolutely starting with the announcement at one point in the programme, the Hon. John T. Klockner, of Iowa, would be heard on the subject of "Woman as a Race Reporter," and when a demure, the woman stepped forward and began to demonstrate her intimate acquaintance with the intricacies of the law.

The men in the audience began to gasp and ask each other to point out the woman on the platform who would discourse on the fine points of jurisprudence.

Mrs. Klockner reported every race that has taken place on the famous "Circuit" since the woman stepped forward in 1889. She is a recognized authority on all race questions, and, from her own stable-boy, is universally respected.

The announcement was also made that the woman would be read in the "Woman as a Race Reporter" by Mrs. Klockner, of Iowa, who has made a special study of architecture for utilization in journalistic work.

Their action, absolutely starting with the announcement at one point in the programme, the Hon. John T. Klockner, of Iowa, would be heard on the subject of "Woman as a Race Reporter," and when a demure, the woman stepped forward and began to demonstrate her intimate acquaintance with the intricacies of the law.

The men in the audience began to gasp and ask each other to point out the woman on the platform who would discourse on the fine points of jurisprudence.

Mrs. Klockner reported every race that has taken place on the famous "Circuit" since the woman stepped forward in 1889. She is a recognized authority on all race questions, and, from her own stable-boy, is universally respected.

The announcement was also made that the woman would be read in the "Woman as a Race Reporter" by Mrs. Klockner, of Iowa, who has made a special study of architecture for utilization in journalistic work.

Their action, absolutely starting with the announcement at one point in the programme, the Hon. John T. Klockner, of Iowa, would be heard on the subject of "Woman as a Race Reporter," and when a demure, the woman stepped forward and began to demonstrate her intimate acquaintance with the intricacies of the law.

The men in the audience began to gasp and ask each other to point out the woman on the platform who would discourse on the fine points of jurisprudence.

Mrs. Klockner reported every race that has taken place on the famous "Circuit" since the woman stepped forward in 1889. She is a recognized authority on all race questions, and, from her own stable-boy, is universally respected.

The announcement was also made that the woman would be read in the "Woman as a Race Reporter" by Mrs. Klockner, of Iowa, who has made a special study of architecture for utilization in journalistic work.

Their action, absolutely starting with the announcement at one point in the programme, the Hon. John T. Klockner, of Iowa, would be heard on the subject of "Woman as a Race Reporter," and when a demure, the woman stepped forward and began to demonstrate her intimate acquaintance with the intricacies of the law.

The men in the audience began to gasp and ask each other to point out the woman on the platform who would discourse on the fine points of jurisprudence.

Mrs. Klockner reported every race that has taken place on the famous "Circuit" since the woman stepped forward in 1889. She is a recognized authority on all race questions, and, from her own stable-boy, is universally respected.

The announcement was also made that the woman would be read in the "Woman as a Race Reporter" by Mrs. Klockner, of Iowa, who has made a special study of architecture for utilization in journalistic work.

Their action, absolutely starting with the announcement at one point in the programme, the Hon. John T. Klockner, of Iowa, would be heard on the subject of "Woman as a Race Reporter," and when a demure, the woman stepped forward and began to demonstrate her intimate acquaintance with the intricacies of the law.

The men in the audience began to gasp and ask each other to point out the woman on the platform who would discourse on the fine points of jurisprudence.

Mrs. Klockner reported every race that has taken place on the famous "Circuit" since the woman stepped forward in 1889. She is a recognized authority on all race questions, and, from her own stable-boy, is universally respected.

The announcement was also made that the woman would be read in the "Woman as a Race Reporter" by Mrs. Klockner, of Iowa, who has made a special study of architecture for utilization in journalistic work.

Their action, absolutely starting with the announcement at one point in the programme, the Hon. John T. Klockner, of Iowa, would be heard on the subject of "Woman as a Race Reporter," and when a demure, the woman stepped forward and began to demonstrate her intimate acquaintance with the intricacies of the law.

The men in the audience began to gasp and ask each other to point out the woman on the platform who would discourse on the fine points of jurisprudence.

Mrs. Klockner reported every race that has taken place on the famous "Circuit" since the woman stepped forward in 1889. She is a recognized authority on all race questions, and, from her own stable-boy, is universally respected.

The announcement was also made that the woman would be read in the "Woman as a Race Reporter" by Mrs. Klockner, of Iowa, who has made a special study of architecture for utilization in journalistic work.

Their action, absolutely starting with the announcement at one point in the programme, the Hon. John T. Klockner, of Iowa, would be heard on the subject of "Woman as a Race Reporter," and when a demure, the woman stepped forward and began to demonstrate her intimate acquaintance with the intricacies of the law.

The men in the audience began to gasp and ask each other to point out the woman on the platform who would discourse on the fine points of jurisprudence.

Mrs. Klockner reported every race that has taken place on the famous "Circuit" since the woman stepped forward in 1889. She is a recognized authority on all race questions, and, from her own stable-boy, is universally respected.

The announcement was also made that the woman would be read in the "Woman as a Race Reporter" by Mrs. Klockner, of Iowa, who has made a special study of architecture for utilization in journalistic work.

Their action, absolutely starting with the announcement at one point in the programme, the Hon. John T. Klockner, of Iowa, would be heard on the subject of "Woman as a Race Reporter," and when a demure, the woman stepped forward and began to demonstrate her intimate acquaintance with the intricacies of the law.

The men in the audience began to gasp and ask each other to point out the woman on the platform who would discourse on the fine points of jurisprudence.

Mrs. Klockner reported every race that has taken place on the famous "Circuit" since the woman stepped forward in 1889. She is a recognized authority on all race questions, and, from her own stable-boy, is universally respected.

EIGHT DAYS MORE.

Then the Offer of a Positive Guarantee Will Expire.

DOUBT DISPLACED BY CERTAINTY.

The Novel Feature of a Guarantee Cure Adopted by Drs. Copeland and Gardner for May-Sufferers Who Wish to Be Assured of a Cure or Money Returned Should Take Advantage of This Remarkable Offer.

Drs. Copeland and Gardner announced a few weeks since that they would undertake to remove all doubt as to the value of their treatment and their skill and ability shown in the cure of chronic diseases, by positively guaranteeing to cure every case of patient or refund all money paid if a cure is not effected. This offer is good during May.

Eight days remain, therefore, in which to take advantage of this offer. Consultation and examination are free. Those who have been impressed by the number and character of the testimonials submitted every week by Drs. Copeland and Gardner are respectfully invited to call upon these physicians at their office, 18 West 24th st., where courteous treatment and full examination are assured.

The guarantee offer is especially addressed to the thousands of sufferers who have not been able to obtain relief at the hands of other physicians, who are tired of experimenting, of spending money for medical treatment without getting any benefit, and who desire to obtain a tangible return for their investment.

The mail treatment. It's wonderful. All our mail patients are delighted. Send for symptom blank. Medicines sent by post.

WRITE FOR IT.

The mail treatment. It's wonderful. All our mail patients are delighted. Send for symptom blank. Medicines sent by post.

WRITE FOR IT.

The mail treatment. It's wonderful. All our mail patients are delighted. Send for symptom blank. Medicines sent by post.

WRITE FOR IT.

The mail treatment. It's wonderful. All our mail patients are delighted. Send for symptom blank. Medicines sent by post.

WRITE FOR IT.

The mail treatment. It's wonderful. All our mail patients are delighted. Send for symptom blank. Medicines sent by post.

WRITE FOR IT.

The mail treatment. It's wonderful. All our mail patients are delighted. Send for symptom blank. Medicines sent by post.

WRITE FOR IT.

The mail treatment. It's wonderful. All our mail patients are delighted. Send for symptom blank. Medicines sent by post.

WRITE FOR IT.

The mail treatment. It's wonderful. All our mail patients are delighted. Send for symptom blank. Medicines sent by post.

WRITE FOR IT.

The mail treatment. It's wonderful. All our mail patients are delighted. Send for symptom blank. Medicines sent by post.

WRITE FOR IT.

The mail treatment. It's wonderful. All our mail patients are delighted. Send for symptom blank. Medicines sent by post.

WRITE FOR IT.

The mail treatment. It's wonderful. All our mail patients are delighted. Send for symptom blank. Medicines sent by post.

WRITE FOR IT.

The mail treatment. It's wonderful. All our mail patients are delighted. Send for symptom blank. Medicines sent by post.

WRITE FOR IT.

The mail treatment. It's wonderful. All our mail patients are delighted. Send for symptom blank. Medicines sent by post.

WRITE FOR IT.

The mail treatment. It's wonderful. All our mail patients are delighted. Send for symptom blank. Medicines sent by post.

WRITE FOR IT.

The mail treatment. It's wonderful. All our mail patients are delighted. Send for symptom blank. Medicines sent by post.

WRITE FOR IT.

GAINED 25 POUNDS.

THE NIGHT WATCHMAN OF THE GILSEY HOUSE GIVES HIS TESTIMONY.

Mr. Robert Gough, who has been night watchman of the Gilsey House for four years, says:

"I was cured by Drs. Copeland and Gardner of catarrh of the stomach after two years of suffering, and after other doctors had failed to cure me. I suffered from headaches, nervousness and throat and weak stomach."

This 5-Piece Rug Suit, Silk Plush Trimmings, for this week, only

$42.50; Sold elsewhere for $60.00.